

The Owingsville Outlook.

VOL. XX.

OWINGSVILLE, KENTUCKY, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 1899.

NO. 28.

Notice.

Having sold a half-interest in my business, and desiring to close up my individual affairs as speedily as possible, I earnestly request all those indebted to me to settle with-out delay.

S. P. ARCHISON.

Mrs. Sarah Jones, of Craig, gets a widow's pension of $8 per month. James Emmons brought in the mail in a sleigh yesterday morning. While riding near New Lexington, he lost his target to the doctor.

The three-year-old son of George Daniel, of color, died Friday of brain trouble.

The top price for hogs in the Chicago and Cincinnati markets Monday was 4c.

You want a Doctor to come in a hurry. Pay him promptly.

Patterson & McKinnon's new 25-horse power boiler for their planing mill has arrived.

Jacob Warner and tenants Henry and Wesley Stinson sold their tobacco to J. D. Noel at 6c.

Call and get prices on Buggy Robes, Hames, Saddles, Bridles and Gearing.

JOHN A. RAMSEY & CO.

Today is Ground-hog day. The action is good, because it is venerable, but for no other reason.

William Wright, of lower State, bought Capt. E. Q. Wells' 74-acre farm on upper State for $23,370.

T. S. Shurt will sell you Furniture, Buggies and Coffins cheaper than anywhere. Cash or credit.

Jacob Warner and tenant Ned Stinson sold about 11,000 pounds of tobacco to George A. Peed at 6c, and 2,000 pounds at 4c.

Wheat, as it has been doing for some years at this season, is advancing rapidly. Nearly all farm products are on the advance.

When you sell your tobacco go pay your Doctor. You will want him again.

Born Saturday night, to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Shoup, of Washington Branch, a son; to Mr. and Mrs. Art Andy, of Naylor's Branch, a son; to Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Carter, of Prickly Ash, a daughter.

To CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY Take Laxative Broom Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund money if it fails to cure. 25c.

The church candy-pulling last night was a great success, and netted about $8. Conceding the low admission price, well, well. Mrs. Beth Richards and Mary Reynolds kindly received THE OUTLOOK force with the candy, which was duly appreciated.

You want a Heating Stove for the house you are now building? (Save time), at greatly reduced prices. J. A. RAMSEY & CO.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Cartmill's daughter Della May, not quite four years old, died on Prickly Ash last week. She was the largest of most remarkably strong family of three children. She weighed about 115 pounds. The undertaker had no coffin of the proper length large enough and had to make one.

The Doctor has to pay his Jan. accounts as well as others. Pay in your bill.

UNCLAIMED LETTERS.—Remain-ing in the post-office at Owingsville on Jan. 31, 1899: John Bowles, James Chandler, The Hermitage Dis. Co., Johnny Langley, Mrs. Katie Willis, Mrs. Martha Daugherty, Lindsay & Botta, Frank Downs, John Wilson, Jennie Mack Macteria. Persons calling for above letters will please say "advised."

J. N. BRONK, P. M.

All persons knowing themselves indebted to us please call and settle their accounts at once.

Receipt. S. SLEMER.

GOOD DETECTIVE WORK.—Con-sultable Morris Evans, of Bethel, did a neat piece of detective work last week in arresting William Fox, of color, charged with the murder of his sweetheart Ada Marshall in Covington Nov. 25, 1898. Fox was living on Chas. Wilson's farm under an assumed name. He denied his identity to Evans until he got to Covington, when he admitted that he was Fox, but denied killing the girl. It is said that the two were sweethearts and had a quarrel in the presence of another woman. Fox placed a pistol to Ada's head and shot her dead. He skipped out. Evans will get the State's reward of $250 for the capture.

Tobacco Sales.—J. M. Riehart, based on Limestone Branch in Clark and T. W. Ewing's tobacco; near town, A. A. Ramsey & A. W. Bascom's at 6c. John W. Corbin, of Reynoldsville, bought in that neighborhood Taylor Doggett's crop of tobacco at 4c; W. W. Rodgers' at 5c; James Moore's at 5c; James Wilson's at 6c.

Purchases of Robertson Bros., of Bethel, in the Reynoldsville neighborhood: J. Tom Coyle's at 5c; Gray & Boyd's at 7c, less $20; Wm. Boyd's at 4c; O. S. Rodgers' at 4c; crops of Off Hendrix and tenants Green Lyman and Stephen Boyd at 5c; and half interest in J. R. Corbin's at 6c.

READ AND PROFIT.—For the purpose of reducing our stock we will, for the next sixty days, offer extraordinary bargains in all kinds of Hardware, Stoves, Queensware, etc.

JOHN A. RAMSEY & CO.

SOCIAL.—On Thursday evening of last week at her home in Salt Lick Miss Lizzie Green gave an elegant social in honor of her charming guests—Miss Katherine McCormick, of Mt. Sterling, and Miss Stella Montague, of Farmers. A delightful evening was spent, and at 12 o'clock the party dispersed, after many expressions of thanks to their handsome young hostess. An Outlook man acknowledges receipt of an invitation, but in account of the inclement weather was prevented from attending.

Are you doing anything for your Doctor? He does lots for your family.

GOOD LITTLE SHOW.—On Wednesday of last week a showman's van rolled slowly into town from the direction of Wyoming. It appeared to be the regular traveling home of a party of variety performers consisting of three men, the Wilson Brothers, and the wives of two of them. In this house on wheels they live—cook, eat and sleep—while on a professional tour. On Wednesday and Thursday nights they gave performances at the Court-house and had very fair houses each night. The admission was only 15 cents. Those who didn't go missed a good thing. They have paid 50 cents many a time to see a show inferior to this. They made excellent music on various regular instruments and then showed their skill with a number of odd musical contrivances. Their dancing was first-rate. Their puppet play was extremely amusing.

I have a fine upright Piano, in perfect condition, for sale.

JAMES GILLON.

DEDLEY HART'S DEATH.—Dudley D. Hart died of Bright's disease at the home of his sister, Mrs. Press Barnes, at Preston, at 8 o'clock Thursday morning. He had been critically ill for some weeks. The burial took place at the Owingsville Cemetery on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Deceased was a son of George Hart, deceased, and was aged about 54 years. His wife died about 15 years ago. Their two children died in infancy. His wife was a daughter of J. Calvin Moore. His brothers are William, of Roe's Run; Samuel, of Montgomery county, and Henry, of Kansas, and sister Mrs. Press Barnes, of Preston; Mrs. Thomas Fletcher, of Clay City, and Mrs. Wm. Johnson, of Stepstone. Dudley Hart was a popular, good citizen and a thrifty farmer and live-stock trader. He leaves a considerable estate, which will go to the relatives. See Crooks items for a feeling tribute to deceased.

John Duncan old and new white Burley tobacco seed for sale by Brother & Goodpastor.

COL. ROGERS' ANNOUNCEMENT.—With this issue appears the announcement of the candidacy of Col. L. S. Rogers, of Sharpshooter precinct, for County Judge, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Col. Rogers is well known to the Democrats of Bath from his participation in the battles of the party heretofore. He has been a staunch Democrat and can show a record of loyalty to the party that establishes a claim to the due consideration of its members now that he desires a nomination. He is a man of pronounced ability, wide experience in public affairs, and would be a commanding figure as the bearer of the party standard in any campaign from a Congressional down to a county one. Being a farmer his interests are those of the masses of the people. He is especially fitted for the duties of County Judge from having served on that office in Robertson county. He would be pleased to have all Democrats give his candidacy their thoughtful attention.

When you sell your tobacco go pay your Doctor what you owe him.

Hillsboro, Ky., Jan. 24, 1899.—Special to OUTLOOK.—Dr. S. F. O'Brien announced to the young people of this place that on the above date he was thirty years of age, Jan. 24th, and requested their presence at the home to spend an evening of pleasure. The guests arrived at the appointed hour and were properly received by the host and hostess. Some time was passed in playing cards, until the hour came for supper, when the doors of the dining hall were thrown open and the guests met with their eyes a table filled with all of the delicacies of the season, which, after the gentlemen guests had partaken the gentlemen guests accompanied the host to his private office on the second floor, where a box of La Toaca cigars and a half hour of time was passed very pleasantly. After which the guests returned to the parlor. The Hillsboro Orchestra furnished delicious music, while an hour was spent at two-step and waltz. And in the wee small hours of the swiftly flying day, partners were chosen and the old-fashioned dance was engaged in until the break of another day. When the guests extended to the Doctor and wife their best wishes and departed for their several homes, saying it was an enjoyable evening.

By a GUEST.

JOHN A. RAMSEY & CO.

Mrs. Wm. C. HARPER'S DEATH.—It was with inexpressible sadness the many relatives and friends throughout this part of the State received the intelligence that Mrs. Edie D. Harper, of Stepstone, had laid down the burden of life at 1 o'clock a. m. Thursday, Jan. 26th.

That one so young, so bright, so happily situated until disease laid its insidious hand upon her, should be taken away, rendering desolate the fond young husband's heart and home, and blighting the loving pride and earthly hopes of parents and friends in her, was a sorrow too deep for utterance. Yet with patient resignation they can say "Thou wert not formed for living here; thou wert formed for the sky; yet, ah, we held thee all so dear. We thought thou wert not formed to die."

"Oh earth! that to thy matron breast hast taken all those angel charms. Gently, we pray thee, let her rest—Gently, as in a mother's arms." The funeral was held in the Christian Church here at 11 o'clock Friday morning. Elder T. S. Tinsley delivered a feeling discourse, after which the very large funeral cortege formed and proceeded to the Owingsville Cemetery, where all that was mortal of Mrs. Harper was consigned to the earth. The pall-bearers were all uncles of the deceased—D. C. Shroat, L. C. Shroat, C. S. Ratliff, Elder Mat Hart, J. W. Shroat and Morton Harper. The floral offerings were very numerous and very beautiful.

To avoid repetition we refer the reader to a biographical sketch, and excellent tribute to the worth of the deceased, in the Stepstone items. THE OUTLOOK extends to all the bereaved ones its condolences in the loss of one they held so dear.

FOR SALE.—A new Sayers & Scovell phaeton; new hand-made, brass-mounted harness made by Col. P. M. Goodwin; and a good buggy horse. Will sell all together, or separately. OWINGSVILLE GRANITE & MARBLE CO.

PERSONAL.

R. H. Conner spent a few days the past week in Farmers.

Miss Ora Hart, of Roe's Run, has about recovered from an attack of measles.

J. D. Coons, of near Bethel, joined his wife at Mrs. Lide Kincaid's Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Scott, of Peled Oak, visited Henry Scott's family some days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Smith and Mrs. A. T. Byron returned last week from a visit to Falmouth.

Glad to see Postmaster J. N. Byron able to be on the streets again from his recent spell of sickness.

Master Nathan Sorrell, of lower Flat Creek, visited his sister, Mrs. Oscar Palmer, from Saturday till Tuesday.

Mrs. Thomas Gorrell and son Samuel, of Montgomery county, were pleasant callers at THE OUTLOOK office Friday.

Misses Susie Burroughs and Edna Land, of Mt. Sterling, were guests of Mrs. John A. Daugherty Friday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Myers, of Nicholas county, came Saturday afternoon to visit the family of Mrs. Lide Kincaid.

Thomas Garrett and sisters, Mrs. H. S. Binger and Miss Mildred Garrett, all of Stepstone, visited at Mrs. Lellie Conner's Friday.

Miss Lizzie Moore went last Thursday to visit friends at Carlisle. She returned home Sunday, accompanied by Larkin Combs.

Geo. A. Peed and Emmett Park, of town, and F. P. Hendrix, of lower Flat Creek, are selling tobacco on the Louisville breaks this week.

Levi Goodpastor and Levi Pratt have rented the John S. Wilson farm near Bethel and will farm this year. Mrs. Emily Bradbury, of Camargo, will keep house for them.

Mrs. J. H. Taulbee, after a visit of some days with relatives at Mt. Sterling, returned home Friday, accompanied by her cousin, Miss Maggie Kelley. Miss Kelley went back home Sunday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Wilcox (nee Coleman), formerly of this town, now of Paducah, Ky., came Monday to visit relatives and friends in the town and county. She is the guest of Mrs. Lellie Conner at present.

Mr. and Mrs. James Harper, of Catlettsburg, attended the funeral of Mrs. W. C. Harper last week. Mr. Harper returned home Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Harper will remain some time with her son Will, at Stepstone.

Sherman Paxton left Monday to attend the Kentucky University at Lexington. He is a model young man, his morals being of the best. His many friends here will take a strong interest in his advancement.

Stepstone.

Jas. H. Lowry's daughter, who has been down with typhoid fever so long and has been at the point of death for more than a week, is still alive, and she being able to pull through so long, we now hope that she will get up and be happy.

Dudley Hart, of the Preston neighborhood, died last Thursday, from the effect of a relapse of typhoid fever. He was well known and liked in this neighborhood, and had many kind folks and friends at this place who are exceedingly sorry to hear of his death.

We are so sad over the death of one of our best neighbors, Mrs. W. C. Harper, who died last Thursday morning at 1 a. m., that we can't recall very many happenings this week. She was as good a neighbor as ever anyone lived by, ever having a pleasant smile and a kind word for all. No one ever called on her in vain, for they were fitted out to the best of her ability every time. If she had an enemy we are at a loss to know who it is, and we know that if enemy, if any, were to tell the truth, they would have to say she was too good to us. If there ever was anyone that went to Heaven she is sure to be that person, "for of such is the Kingdom of God."

We are exceedingly sorry to say that Mrs. Ed Glover, of upper Stepstone, is down with another stroke of paralysis and is in a very low state, with chances against her, but where there is life there is hope, and we hope that she will pull through and live to a great old age. There are several small children that we hope she will be spared to raise in the way they should go.

Mrs. Edie D. wife of W. C. Harper, died at Stepstone, Thursday, Jan. 26th, 1899. She was the oldest daughter of Jas. R. Shroat, of near there, being born, July 14th, 1877, and the pet of the whole family. While yet in youth she professed her faith in the Almighty Christ and connected herself with Corinth Church. Ever after that lived up to the true doctrine, as laid down by the "Book of God," as she understood it. On March 10th, 1897, she was married to W. C. Harper, the only child of James Harper, of Catlettsburg, Ky. They settled down to housekeeping at Stepstone station and lived the life of the just, happy in the company of each other, and yet deriving more happiness from the service of trying to make every one they came in contact with happy, and we all miss her so much. To think that this young lady should be taken away at the age of 21 years 6 months and 12 days, when she was doing so much good for her Master, working in his vineyard, and to leave her helpless, who was ever willing to aid her in her good work at any and all times, regardless of the cost to him, is a sad thing to us, and we hope and pray that the all-wise God in his wisdom will cheer and help those she left behind to their Cross (that this bereavement will still add to it) with as much ease as possible. She was buried in Owingsville Cemetery and the pall-bearers were her uncles, both blood and by marriage.

"Come, ye disconsolate, where'er you languish, Come, at God's altar fervently kneel. Here bring your wounded hearts, here tell your anguish—Earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal."

Farmers.

Knob Lick.

We are having some very cold weather.

The ore company shipped considerable ore this week.

T. J. Barnes was scraping some last week at the ore banks.

There has been considerable complaint on account of the bad condition of the roads.

John Clark is at work. He is getting along nicely. His leg is not giving him any trouble.

It seems that the roads are free, from the amount of wagons and other obstructions left on the roads of nights.

Chas. Pitman, who was with his father for a few days, has gone back to his brother's in Montgomery county.

The health of the community is some better. Mrs. Bohannon's little boy has a supposed case of diphtheria. It is hoped that is not the case.

Ike Hardin is going to move from J. M. Collier's place to Clover Creek. Tom McGlothlin and Henry Tate moved to J. M. Collier's place.

DEFINITION.—A gentleman who is evidently trying to square himself with maiden ladies who have passed the blushing period gives this definition of an old maid: "An old maid is a woman who has not been fool enough to be fooled by every fool who has been fool enough to foolishly try to fool her."

PARODY.—Dewey had a little fleet, which once was white as snow, and every where that Dewey went that fleet was sure to go. It went with him to the Philippines, against the Spanish rule; it made the poor Dons gnash their teeth to see them keep so cool. And so they tried to turn him out, but still he lingered near, and swiped Spain's fleet clear off the sea—this makes the Yankees cheer.—Ex.

BEWARE.—Another swindler is abroad in the shape of a man who goes about cleaning sewing machines. If any person watches him while at work he sends them for oil, rags or something of the sort, and while they are gone he exchanges a good wheel or some piece of the machine for a broken piece which he, of course, finds as soon as the person returns. He then promises to repair the damage and presents a large bill. If he happens to come your way let Tower head the reception committee.—Ex.

QUEER NESTING PLACE.—Hugh Monroe, who for more than seventy five years traveled the prairies of the Northwest, said that once he had found a bird's nest in the thick hair between the horns of a buffalo bull that he had killed. He had two Indians with him and had killed the young bull, which the Indians were beginning to skin and cut up, and while they were doing this he plucked some of the long hair from the forehead to use in wiping his gun. As he reached down and grasped the hair a little bird—a little gray bird—flew out from under his hand and away. Parting the hair to see whence it had come, he found a round, smooth nest, containing four little young birds. He could not tell what kind of a bird it was.—Exchange.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF BATH COUNTY.—I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of Judge of the Bath County Court, subject to the action of the Democratic party, and declare that I favor the following:

1st. An economical administration of the fiscal affairs of the county;

2d. The payment of all just and legal obligations of the county in the most speedy manner consistent with public interests;

3d. A reduction of expenses, including salaries of county officers;

4th. The further acquiring and taking up of all the remaining turnpike roads in the county and keeping them in repair;

5th. An economical and judicious expenditure of the turnpike fund, to the end that free turnpikes may reach the free legitimate conclusions and expectations and desires of the people.

Upon these issues I solicit your support. JOHN A. DAUGHERTY.

We are authorized to announce L. S. Rogers, of near Sharpsburg, a candidate for the Democratic nomination for County Judge of Bath. Your support is solicited.

THURSDAY, FEB. 2, 1899.

STAGNATION is said to be more fatal than the most corrupt activity. That is reassuring for Louisville.

ATLANTA is howling because the meat trust has doubled the price of beef liver. The boarders at cheap houses are not making any kick, however.

THE Republicans worked the Senatorial trick in West Virginia, electing N. B. Scott. His Democratic rival J. E. McGraw will contest.

THE Tennessee lower house passed a bill making it a felony to keep a place for procuring craps. The same must be observed or there'll soon be nothing but people to shoot.

IT appears that a lot of the boys fearing the Goebel band-wagon was not going to the head of the procession quietly moved to the rear and went over the tail-board to the ground.

THE latest returns give eight aspirants in Rowan county for the Democratic nomination for Representative from the Bath-Rowan district. That is a new record for that office.

Gov. McMILLIN, of Tennessee, got in a heavy blow for silver by vetoing a bill permitting Memphis to issue bonds payable in any sort of money on contract. Every little like that helps to save the country from the ruthless money power.

LEXINGTON is about to lose its most distinguishing feature by the sale under lien of the Association's running track in town lots at auction this spring. Lexington without horsing would be a commonplace town.

ONE of the leading statesmen of the Texas legislature introduced a resolution favoring that State's withdrawing from the Union because of some feature of the war-revenue law. That statesmanist is a great unconscious humorist.

GOBEL says he hasn't a single daily newspaper of general circulation for him. Neither has Hardin unless the Dispatch has recently espoused his cause. Hardin seemed for a while to have rather soured on the organ he was largely instrumental in establishing.

IT is funny to see the new brand of Democrats, the Chicago-platform sort of Democrats, rejoice because Stewart was re-elected Senator from Nevada. Stewart comes about as near to being a Democrat as the Pope to being a Mohammedan—unless free-silverism is the new test, and the sole test, of Democracy.

CONGRESSMAN JOHNSON, of Indiana, is made of the right sort of stuff in that he follows his convictions of right and duty regardless of the party label or public opinion. He may espouse some bad causes, but he is always honest, sincere, and defiant to the crowd if it is against him. But Johnson wasn't re-elected last fall. His sort disdains too many of the low arts of the politician to hold office continually. Johnson made probably his last formal address in the House last week against "expansion," and the way he scored some of the expansionists was a caution.

GEN. EAGAN, without a dissenting vote, was found "guilty" of duet unbecoming an officer and a gentleman" by the court-martial. It is said he will only be reprimanded. In view of the provocation he had, it looks like that will be sufficient punishment.

CULBERTSON was chosen by the Texas legislature to succeed Roger Q. Mills in the United States Senate. Mills' political career is probably ended. He would have been a more heroic figure in his retirement if he had gone down fighting for sound money as he started, to instead of surrendering to the Bryan forces in 1896.

The conspiracy case of "Mrs. Alice Montgomery" and associates against Congressman Ciniotti in Louisville was dismissed by Judge Thompson, who salivated Ciniotti, though he disapproved of the methods of the conspirators to manufacture a "scoop" for a new evening newspaper about to be launched. The whole kit and billy of them deserved salivating.

A THREE walked behind the counter at Post's bank in London last week and took $200,000 in notes from a drawer. One hundred clerks were at work there, but the thief wasn't noticed. $200,000 in notes was too big to pass without arousing suspicion were returned by mail. American enterprise receives the usual tribute in the suspicion that Americans did the trick.

THE Senate has set Feb. 6th for a vote on the peace treaty between Spain and the United States. It seems a foregone conclusion that the Senate will ratify it. Expansion proper will go over to the new Congress, when maybe the sober second thought of the statesmen and the people will not urge the hasty entrance upon a policy of colonization that is so contrary to the traditions of the nation.

An article telling more fully about the projected great Black Diamond railroad system was crowded out of this issue. It will be fair to the projectors and tell what they profess to be aiming at, although we may still express some doubts about it. Be assured we shall use none but legitimate means in dealing with the subject. There will be no childish blackguardism nor downright meanness in it.

IT is evident that not all the sentiment against expansion has its source in the motives of lefty regard for the rights of the inhabitants of the countries whose annexation is contemplated. Carnegie thinks he sees the downfall of protectionism in it, and perhaps the legislature of Pennsylvania is actuated by similar motives in urging Congress to adhere to the principle of the Declaration of Independence that governments gain their just powers from the consent of the governed.

Cecil Rhodes has induced the British government to guarantee 350 miles—from Bulawayo to Zambesi—of the great railroad from Cairo, Egypt, to Cape Town, South Africa. That looks like a vast project until "Pathfinder" Boone's "Pipe Dream" system of railroads is considered. The Arabian Nights even are not in it by the side of Boone. The "Pipe Dream" railroad starts any old place, branches and ramifies at each watering tank, covers the continent, and then runs clean to the ultimate firework, where he will soon send his doubting critics.

THE LOUISVILLE DISPATCH has serious trouble in its "midst." B. A. Enloe, the Louisville editor who came from Nashville to Louisville in 1896 to establish the Dispatch as a free-silver organ to down the gold-bug journals there, has resigned as editor and says that the money cover by subscribing $25,000 to the capital stock of the Dispatch Publishing Co. has gained a controlling voice in its editorial policy. That's the way with journals established to down some other paper. The journalistic trail in the United States is strewn with the corpses and bones of such, but only a few learn anything from it.

SENATOR WM. GOEBEL opened his campaign for the gubernatorial nomination with a speech at Lebanon Monday week. He said he wouldn't accept a nomination unless on the Chicago platform, declared warmly for free silver, Bryan and Blackburn. He says the "crime of 1873" must be avenged, and good times will never come without 16 to 1 silver coinage. Up to the time of the State convention in 1896 there was no stronger gold-standard advocate in the State. How are people to judge the sincerity of such men? Conventions on such questions do not undergo natural changes that way.

Why are ladies the biggest thieves in existence? Because they steal their petticoats, bone their stays, crib their babies and hook their dresses.

Married, at the home of the bride's parents, in Frenchburg, Mr. Sim Hamilton and Miss Elva Armstrong. The groom is the popular son of Schuyler Hamilton and stands high in the estimation of all who know him. The bride is the daughter of Postmaster James Armitage and is a handsome and highly cultured young lady, whose popularity is bounded only by her large acquaintance. Your scribbles wishes for them a bright and happy life.

A few of our friends have requested that we write a short article on tobacco culture. In doing so we admit our want of knowledge to cope with such a large subject, but we begin and will furnish a short article. First, we will say Menifee county has good land for the business. The little bottoms of the creeks emptying into the rivers are as good land for an all-around grade as can be found. Upland will raise a lighter and finer quality, but the little bottoms will give it greater body and be more acceptable in our local trade.
